

THE SPOUT SPRING TIMES.

VOL. I

SPOUT SPRING, KY., APRIL 25, 1896.

NO. 14

There is one thing peculiar about the citizens of Williamsburg, Maine, last week there was one man elected to fill seven different offices without any opposition.

Miss Nettie Stone, of Mason county, came up on an excursion to Argyle last Saturday with a number of friends to visit Pilot Knob, while on her return to the station, she was stricken down with congestion of the brain and died that night. Miss Stone was seemingly enjoying the best of health up to the time she was stricken. Her remains were returned to her home for burial, on Sunday.

April Court-day was hot and dry which affected the trade very much. There was between five and six hundred cattle on the market with no good cattle for sale. Trade was dull and cattle was very hard to dispose of. Some 800 to 900 steers sold at $1. Yearlings at same price. Calf and heifers at from $1. to $2.50. Hogs and

There was quite a number of cattle that were not sold. --Mt. Sterling Advocate.

Died April 19, Henry Woosley, on Poll cat, with fever. He was an old and a respected citizen, and was buried Wednesday at the grave yard on the place of Balis McIntosh, on Caloway's creek.

Three Breckin county children are named Nineteen, Twenty and Twenty-one. That's their order. --Winchester Democrat.

Your name and address printed on 25 envelopes for 10 cents at this office.

Aunt Sally Pore fell and injured her left hip a short time ago, and is in quite a critical condition.

Reuben Tipton, who raised wheat last year in Clark county, hauled it up here and last Thursday sent it to the Maple Grove Roller Mills to exchange for flour. This conclusively proves the superiority of the Maple Grove mills flour over that of other mills', which were closer to Mr. Tipton. He is not the only one that hauls wheat out of Montgomery and Clark counties to Cat Creek, there are others who have done the same.

Leo Bird a "free-love" preacher, who had spent the winter at Falmouth was badly beaten there Saturday night and ordered to leave town. He left. [ Mt. Sterling Advocate.

The people in this part of the county have a good showing to get all out of their produce that there is in it. Almost every day in the week there is a waggon on each road buying up produce, for which this section is famous. There were three out Thursday, and a promise of still that many more. They all seem to be doing a very good business.
